There's a massive 2.5-kilometre sandy beach, freshwater marshes, thriving secondary forests, and it's a major migration hotspot for over 335 species of birds and thousands of Monarch butterflies every fall. With hiking and biking routes, there are also over 300 campsites spread across 8 distinct campground loops. Be aware of the time of the year you visit as all visitors entering the park require a valid vehicle permit, and busy summer weekends and autumn migration periods get quite impacted. During crowded times, reserve your Daily Vehicle Permit (DVP) online up to five days in advance to guarantee entry here <https://ontarioparks.ca/dayuse/getapermit>

0 The Owen Point Trail is a short but stunning trail exploring the tip southern of Presqu'ile Provincial Park. It is a famous bird and shorebird-viewing trail in the park, offering front-row views of the expansive Lake Ontario shoreline and Gull Island. The trail is easy, flat and family friendly, made up of a mixture of packed dirt paths, sand, and wood chips passing through a coastal mix of dense dogwood shrubbery, with spur trails to open gravel beaches. The trail also features five numbered viewing stations placed at strategic lookouts along the shore for birdwatching. Zwick's Island Park is that largest waterfront park in Belleville, and sits right where the Moira River meets the Bay of Quinte. There are walking trails, picnic areas, playgrounds, open green spaces, and plenty of views across the water, making it a popular spot for recreation and community events. It's also an excellent place to watch boats and waterbirds along the busy shoreline. This waterside park stretches along the water with amenities such as a playground, boat launch, and access to the Waterfront Trail. It's a great place for families to visit since it's not far from downtown Belleville. The region offers diverse activities.
